

UBC ALLI

Aboriginal Languages
& Literacy Institute
ALLI 2006

Endangered Languages Revitalization Symposium

on Tuesday July 18
from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
at Green College Coach House, UBC

Leanne Hinton, Professor, University of California, Berkeley

- Author of How to Keep Your Language Alive. 2002. Heyday Books.
- Author of The Green Book of Language Revitalization. 2000. Academic Press.

Larry Grant, Adjunct Professor, First Nations Languages Program, UBC

- hə́nqəmihəm Language Revitalization Program: Musqueam Indian Band-UBC FNLG

Joe Michel, Adams Lake Band, Chase, BC

- Secwepemetsin Language Immersion Program: Chief Atahm School

Rose Robinson, Kitamaat Village, Haisla Nation, BC

- Haisla Language Programs: Kitamaat Village, UNBC

This special event is presented as part of the UBC Aboriginal Languages and Literacy Institute a collaborative initiative of the

First Nations Languages Program (FNLG), First Nations Studies Program (FNSP), Faculty of Arts
and the Department of Language and Literacy Education (LLED)
Faculty of Education

